

DREAM – VISION – PROPHETIC WARNING

Tom Campbell

Praise the Lord. I want to share with you this morning a recent dream and vision I had while visiting in Colorado. On April 16th at 2:45 am in the morning at our motel the Lord took me into a dream and vision after.

The first thing that I saw in the dream, I was taken into a business atmosphere, into a business place, a place of business. In this place there was much activity and scurrying about one after another. I noticed as I looked closely that I saw like a barometer, a temperature gauge and I saw that this gauge was going up. It was like a thermometer or temperature gauge that we have in our home. I noticed that it went higher and higher. It dawned on me that this place that I was in was a place of business and the Spirit led me to know that it was the Stock Market.

The Spirit of God began to speak to me and this is what I relate to you as it was related to me.

The dream that I saw represented the Stock Market and it shall rise very quickly and many shall receive very large profits. I noticed that as I looked closer that I saw men with great stacks of money counting it with great greed and satisfaction. I noticed also that as I watched closer that this same thermometer began to drop very rapidly – for as quickly as it rose it also dropped as quickly. As it dropped it went very low, in fact it went so low that it actually broke all records. It didn't stop until it had hit rock bottom. It could not drop any further than it had.

The Spirit of God seemed to let me to know that the rising of the Stock Market will momentarily bring great prosperity – but it shall not be long last. For as quickly as it comes it shall also quickly disappear. For as quickly as it rises people shall begin to rejoice, be happy because of this momentarily prosperity. However it shall not be lasting and it shall fade and disappear as quickly. When it does there shall be great sorrow and there shall be great sadness and confusion. For as it rose to great extents it shall break all records in its dropping and in its condescending.

I wondered at what I was seeing. Was it for now? Was it for many years ahead? The Spirit let me know that it will happen very soon and it will happen very quickly, almost overnight in the midst of all the turmoil in the world and the unrest. When the job market seems to be at its lowest ebb, housing seems to be at its lowest ebb – there shall be a rising in the Stock Market, but it shall only be temporal.

Now during this time the Spirit of God began to envision, give me a vision concerning of two men that shall rise at this time. The one man that shall come, one of these men that shall rise shall be an imitator, a pretender, an actor. He shall make many promises. He shall promise prosperity. He shall promise security and peace. But as fast as he rises as quickly shall he fall and fade from view.

The word came to me in understanding and a comparison that this first man would be like the “hog-nosed snake”. Possibly some of you have heard and read about this particular species. It is an imitator, a pretender. It acts like a cobra in that it will flatten its neck and raise its head off the ground and hiss and sometimes even feign strikes. They will very seldom however strike. They have a nickname and it is only a nickname of a “puff adder”. Really it is nonvenomous, but it looks and acts like a cobra snake which is very deadly. This man shall be like that. He shall be an imitator, a pretender, one that seems to have great power but does not. One that makes many promises but they are just like the wind. They come and they go and as quickly as they come they flee away. He shall fade from view.

However at the same time almost one following the other another man shall rise. This man shall be great. He shall be powerful. He shall be a man of great eloquence of speech. He will move many multitudes of people, multitudes of people. He shall appear as a man of peace but in reality behind the mask that he wears the façade of this man, the real person, he is a man of great hatred and violence, a warmonger. He will demand complete devotion to his plans and he will demand worship to the system he desires to set up. No one will want to make war with him. People will fear him. This man shall not only make promises but there shall be some evidence and results of what he says.

Now during this time when all of these things are taking place and transpiring there shall come great national disasters. There shall be eruptions that shall come up from the earth, fire and smoke. At the same time that this fire and smoke is coming up from the earth not only shall it destroy much land and property and people, but there shall come fire from the heavens. Fire and brimstone shall fall from the heavens like it did on Sodom and Gomorrah and people shall run to and fro away from the fire that comes from above and beneath.

A warning came from God that was very clear in this vision.

God said, “Don’t be caught in the far country like the prodigal son.” God’s admonition was, “Come into the ark” (and that ark represents Christ, His body)

“where you will be safe. Do not tarry. Do not hesitate like Lot’s wife or you will surely be destroyed by the fire and brimstone.” God said, “Come and hide in the secret place with me. I will preserve you and keep you by My great power. I am thy mighty fortress. My body will be thy only place to be safe. I shall be in the midst of My body, My church and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. No weapon formed by man shall harm or hurt you for this is the beginning of the terrible day of the Lord. The lamp will go out in the temple as it did in 2nd Chronicles 29:7+8 and the only light that shall be in this temple shall be the light and countenance of the Lord Jesus Christ of where we read in Revelation 1 and 13. Quickly, this shall not be a type or a shadow, but this shall be the reality of My presence.”

The final word that God said was, “Prepare the way of the Lord. For behold, I come quickly.”

Our Father and our God we thank You for forewarning us and for calling us to repentance and to prayer. May we obey Your voice Lord. May we not linger as Lot’s wife did. Let us not look back to the beggarly elements of our flesh, or go back to the old ways for the beggarly elements, but let us lift up our hands. Let us lift up our hands in the temple and let us be submissive to You Father. Let us give ourselves completely and wholly unto You, unto Your Spirit, unto Your will. For surely Lord You will take us through this time of darkness and sorrow. For God there is no confusion in You, there is peace, there is rest and there is strength. Help us Lord for we have been those that have heard and not responded, those that have saw and yet not walked in what we have saw. Forgive us Lord of our transgressions. Forgive us Lord of our lack in response to Your voice and to Your word. Grant to us Lord forgiveness. Grant to us of Your grace. Stir up our pure minds Lord. Release our spirits and soul from this earthly realm. Deliver us from the body of this flesh that is holding us captive for so many, many years.

Father we commit ourselves to You afresh and anew this day. Let Thy word find place and lodging in every one of our hearts, but let it not be just another word, but let it stir our hearts. For the days are at hand and they are becoming shorter and shorter. Night is soon to be upon us and the bell will strike at midnight and the toll will not be for many, but for many, many shall it be. Let it not toll for us Lord. Deliver us from this bondage of Adam. In Jesus name. Amen and amen.
